A LEVEL RESULTS 2010

2010 A LEVEL RESULTS

199 Upper Sixth pupils sat 701 A2 level papers. The results, in a year when Bromsgrove was once again deemed "outstanding" by OFSTED, were remarkable.

- 63% of the 701 examinations were graded A* and A
- 86% of all papers were in the A*-B bracket
- 86 pupils achieved at least 3 grade As
- 42 pupils achieved four or more grade As
- 11 pupils achieved 5 grade As or more
- 51% of Bromsgrove leavers' secured places at Russell Group universities (self styled top twenty) and a further 24% at 94 Group universities (self styled top nineteen research universities).
- The three most popular destinations for Bromsgrove pupils are UCL (15 pupils), Imperial College (12 pupils) and LSE (11 pupils)

Exceptional A* and A grade performances were recorded in subjects as varied as Maths and Further Maths, Art, Physics and Textiles. In Physics, for example, 80% of the 57 entries were at A* and A, with a similar figure being recorded for the 100 Maths entries and the 42 Further Maths entries.

Headmaster, Chris Edwards, commented: The pupils took the whole ballyhoo about A*s in their stride. They calmly went about working hard and achieving at the highest levels. And these fabulous results are just as they appear: all pupils, as ever, were entered – whatever their ability - and all pupils have the richest of lives outside the classroom.
